

22 November 2017

Robbie Antonio
Chief Executive Officer
Revolution Precrafted

Dear Mr. Antonio,

The ASEAN Business Advisory Council (ASEAN BAC), we would like to express our gratitude again for your participation to the ASEAN BUSINESS AND INVESTMENT SUMMIT (ABIS) 2017 and for taking time out of your busy schedule to speak in front of people from the business and enablers' community as one of the esteemed forum panelists.

As we institutionalize inclusive growth and prosperity for all in the region, we would like to invite you to be one of the Mentors of the ASEAN Mentorship for Entrepreneurs Network (AMEN), the flagship program of the ASEAN BAC launched to establish a public-private partnership platform where mentors and modules for MSME development and empowerment can be actively shared among ASEAN Member States (www.aseanmentors.org).

Please do not hesitate to contact our Programs Development Officer Gianina Napo at phones +63-917-1238161, +632-6379229 or email gianinajoy.pce@gmail.com should you have questions and suggestions on the program.

Again, thank you for your enthusiastic participation in ABIS2017 that surely contributed to the success of the program and we look forward to the future as we work hand in hand as partners for real change in achieving prosperity for all.

Sincerely,

Jose Ma. A. Concepcion III
Chair, ASEAN Business Advisory Council
Presidential Adviser for Entrepreneurship